Note to Instructors and Parent(s)/Guardian(s)

This activity book is designed as an ancillary resource to the Sunbeam curriculum. It is important that Adventurers learn through all their senses, so singing, smelling, listening, and activities that require movement should be of primary importance in your program.

Activity booklets may be used in whole, or the pages may be removed and completed one at a time. Collecting the completed pages and binding them together (with a stapler, yarn, or in a binder) at the end of the year will provide a keepsake for the children to remind them of their year as a Sunbeam.

In the back of this booklet you will find teaching helps for each activity (look for the icon to the right) and a checklist of investiture requirements for the Sunbeam level.

The Sunbeam Reading award is given to children who read or listen while someone else reads:

1. Two chapters from the Gospel of Mark, from a simple, modern translation of the Bible
2. A Bible story book or a book about Jesus
3. A book on health or safety
4. A book on family, friends, or feelings
5. A book on history or missions
6. A book on nature

Provide children with several good books to choose from which will help them to understand and apply the things they are learning this year in the Sunbeam level.

Be sure that the books are:

1. True to life. The books must present an accurate picture of reality. It must not be overly simplistic, sentimental, or exciting.
2. Lasting value. A good book helps the child to understand God, human nature, or the things of creation without appearing to be preachy and contrived.
3. Morally positive. Evil and sin are recognized as such, and receive their just reward. The good should be upheld as the model and goal for the children.
4. Enjoyable. The book should be one that the adult enjoys reading. (If the adult does not enjoy it, it is highly unlikely that the child will—or should.)
5. Developmentally appropriate. A good book will fit the child’s level of reading ability, sophistication, and interest.

My God: God’s Plan to Save Me
The Sunbeam requirement builds upon the Busy Bee emphasis on Jesus’ love and care for us and His plan to save us from evil.

The primary focus of these stories is to help the children see the gift of God in Jesus—His birth, life, death, and glorious resurrection. When we hear stories of Jesus’ love and care, we are drawn to Him. We can trust Him with our problems and cares.

As the children learn of Jesus and hear us talk about “giving our hearts to Jesus” they will want to know how this is done. Not all will be ready or willing to commit their lives at this time, but they can be given the opportunity to understand what it means to belong to Christ.

Do not pressure children to make a decision before they are ready. You may wish to follow this procedure:

1. Pray yourself for the Holy Spirit’s leading.
2. Take the children through the Steps to Jesus.
3. Ask the children if they would like to make a decision to give their lives to Jesus. Help them pray their own prayer, telling God that they admit their need, ask forgiveness, state their belief, and ask Jesus into their life.
4. Many children will find it easier to take this step if they have previously made private, inner decisions. They now follow up by making their decision public—by telling a parent, a leader, and their pastor. They may start planning to join a baptismal class. (But avoid hurrying a decision without adequate preparation.)
Steps to Jesus
1. Recognize GOD’S LOVE for them. (I John 4:8)
2. Admit THEIR NEED. All have sinned and deserve the consequences. (Romans 3:23; Revelation 21:27; John 8: 21, 24)
3. Jesus is the WAY. The sinless Son of God died for our sins. He is the only way to heaven. (John 3:16; I Corinthians 15: 3,4)
4. Help them RECEIVE JESUS. They admit their need and ask forgiveness.
5. They state their belief in Jesus and ask Him into their lives. (John 1 :12; Revelation 3:20)
6. Give them ASSURANCE that they are God’s children and have a place in heaven. (John 3: 36; John 3:16; 1:2)

The Bible Story Chart may be used in three different ways:
1. Place the pictures on a large wall story chart, adding each new picture as you tell the story. The children may refer to this chart as they work on their own chart(s) and as they learn about other stories from the Bible and history.
2. Provide the children with a practice activity by making available a blank chart and the pictures, stories, and labels provided on the following pages. The children may set the blank chart on the floor and place the pictures, stories, and labels in order on the chart.
3. Children may also color the pictures and use the stories and labels to create their own story charts or lapbooks.

Review
Review the major events of earth’s history introduced at the Busy Bee level: creation, the first sin, Jesus cares for me today, Jesus comes again, and heaven.

• Enthusiastically sharing some of the inspiration and insights you receive during your quiet time
• Leading out in family worship daily
• Helping your child choose a wise time and place for his/her quiet time
• Being a part of your child’s quiet time until he/she is able and eager to continue on their own

My Self: I Am Special
The tracings can be made in two ways:
1. If there is sufficient paper and space, have each child lie on a large sheet of butcher paper while another child traces around his/her body with a watercolor marking pen.
2. Tracings may also be done by using a strong light to project a profile of each child onto a piece of paper that has been taped to the wall. Another child can trace around the shadow with a pencil.

Next, have each child describe himself/herself using some of the following ideas. This may be done together at the teacher’s direction, or various ideas may be written on cards for the children to work with individually. Drawings, cutout pictures, or written words and phrases
may be used.

1. Child’s name, its meaning, how parents chose it

2. Physical Characteristics

   - eye/hair color
   - length of foot, hand, arm
   - fingerprint, footprint
   - clothing
   - age
   - height
   - weight
   - birthday (earliest memory…)
   - home address
   - phone number
   - heart rate (sitting, running)

3. Likes and Dislikes

   - food
   - color
   - animal
   - things to do (alone, with friends or family)
   - game or sport
   - book
   - tree or flower
   - month or day
   - number
   - weather
   - holiday
   - hero
   - Bible verse
   - people
   - Bible character
   - place
   - song
   - subject
   - things to make

4. Feelings

   - I feel ____ when _____
   - lonely
   - worried
   - thankful
   - happy
   - angry
   - embarrassed
   - sad
   - excited
   - rejected
   - afraid
   - important

5. Special Abilities

   - best/nicest thing I ever did
   - things I’m good at
   - I feel good about me because…

6. Ideas and Dreams

   - day dreams
   - three wishes
   - when I grow up I will be…
   - I believe in…
   - someday I hope…
   - something I want to change about myself is…
   - in 5-25 years I want to…

   Emphasize the importance of “internal” characteristics by first putting only physical things on the tracings. Ask whether the children can tell, from those things, whether a person would make a good friend or neighbor. (See 1 Samuel 16:7.)

   Display the tracings for children to discuss and enjoy. A picture of Christ and a heading such as “Jesus Made Us Special” may be hung above them.

   Take time to discuss similarities and differences with the children to help them learn to accept and appreciate each other for their uniqueness.
   Discuss any prejudices or stereotypes the children might face, and help them deal with them.

My Self: I Can Make Wise Choices

The choices we make daily are based upon those things that we consider to be truly valuable.
These values strongly influence our feelings and thoughts. They influence our decisions even though we may be unaware of it. Often people claim to value something very highly but their actions show that there is a difference between what they claim to value and what they actually value. One example would be the mother who tells her child that honesty is a priority but who keeps extra change accidentally given her by a grocery store clerk. A drastic example of this problem is provided by the biblical Pharisees. They claimed to love God at the same time they were crucifying Him.

Examining the things we value is one of the first steps in wise decision-making. When faced with a decision, second-grade children can learn to say to themselves. “What is most important to me?”
This activity enables children to practice decision-making based upon their decisions to commit their lives to Jesus.
Activity About Choices
1. One option is to have the children play the “What If?” game. Some problems which the children might consider include:
   • What if you had $50; how would you spend it?
   • What if you had only one week to live; what would you do with it?
   • What if you could choose only three people in all the world; which three would you choose as friends?

The children or leader may suggest other problems. The leader may read a story to the children, stopping at the point where the problem is introduced to discuss solutions.

2. Go over one of the problems listed above with the children, modeling how they can make a wise decision. Encourage them to ask:
   • What does the Bible say about this?
   • Is this just fun for now or will it help me live happily forever?
   • Is this really important to me?

3. Allow children to work as pairs or individuals on the problem of their choice. As they present their solution to the group, they should use the questions above to explain why they think their solution is a good one. Allow for group discussion of each solution. There is no one right answer.

Make this award fun by:

- Building food group collages or sorting types of food into boxes
- Enjoying an exercise activity together in the sunshine and fresh air
- Having a healthy water-drinking contest

My Family: I Have a Family
Every family has enjoyed experiences that were extra-special. These may be times that were particularly enjoyable or meaningful or that helped them to feel close to each other. Often families have not considered which of their activities may be important to other family members. Many family members may have experiences which they treasure but that other members have not recognized as special.

Be sensitive to children from different types of families. Emphasize that there are various kinds of families.

Do this activity as a:
1. Family worship
2. Adventurer Club Family Night
3. Individual project
4. Supper table discussion

My Family: Family Members Care for Each Other
Page 20
One of the first things that should be understood about disagreement is that disagreement is okay and normal. A disagreement does not indicate that anyone is bad, wrong, or stupid. Disagreements can be very positive because they allow people to bring problems and feelings into the open so they can be solved.

Use this outline to help children understand what to do when they feel unhappy with someone.

1. Think about it. Ask yourself: Why am I feeling this way? What is the disagreement about? Why might the other person be acting this way? Is it something I can ignore or solve myself? Am I doing something to create the problem?

2. Talk about it privately. Listen. Choose a good time and place. Tell how you feel and specifically why you feel that way. Listen carefully to the other person’s feelings and try to understand why he/she is feeling that way. Never interrupt the other person when they are talking.
3. Look for solutions. Together think of ways to solve the problem. This might include doing what you or the other person wants, finding a compromise, thinking of other ideas, or agreeing to disagree. Choose one solution and act on it.

4. Ask for help if you need it. Tell your problem to an adult you trust and ask him/her to help you find a solution.

As each step is discussed, the children may use puppets or role playing to show different ways in which they can carry out that step. It will be easier for the children to visualize if they are given a specific situation to deal with as they go through the steps; e.g., someone cuts in line at the drinking fountain, or your brother borrowed your crayons without permission and broke them.

The children’s knowledge of these steps will have no meaning until they begin to practice the steps themselves. To do this:

1. Refuse to hear children’s tattling or complaints about each other until they have attempted to solve the problem themselves (except in emergency situations).
2. If the child has not yet attempted to follow the problem solving steps, remind him/her to do so and be sure they remember how.
3. Supervise the child’s attempts to follow the steps, if necessary. Many times children can solve the problem alone when reminded, but occasionally (especially at first) they may need some kind of supervision. The leader may need to ask the child to wait until a time when he/she can sit down with them, or he/she may supervise the problem-solving discussion by standing nearby and listening “with one ear” while supervising the rest of the group.

Children’s lists might include: community services, such as a fire or police station or grocery store; a special landmark, such as a park, river, or special building; a particularly nicely kept home or garden (not expensive, but orderly). Help the children to find as many of these things as possible on their own so they can enjoy a sense of exploration and discovery.

The children can list a number of different projects to help the needs they have seen. Then lead them to decide upon an activity or project they can do well and feel a sense of accomplishment in completing. A few possibilities include:

- Beautification: Clean up a road, park, or vacant lot; plant flowers or trees.
- Visit shut-ins: Present programs for nursing homes or children’s wards; adopt a grandparent; do yard work; wash windows; read letters and cards; make phone calls; create May baskets.
- Help those in need: Collect clothing or food; raise funds for a special project; tutor first graders.
- Spiritual assistance: Form special prayer bands; help with VBS, fair booth, neighborhood Bible club; literature distribution.

My World: The World of Other People

To prepare children for this activity, review Jesus’ special trip to our earth to help us, and point out some of the many places in the Bible where He asks us to help our neighbors.

The children’s walking tour should be leisurely and not more than an hour and should not try to cover a whole neighborhood but rather see some of the representative parts. Part of the tour may be completed by car or bus.
